

For whom are the Groasis Digital Securities intended?

- You understand the risks related to investments in depositary receipts for shares;
- You are able to financially bear the risks related to this investment;
- You have thoroughly examined the Investors' Information and possibly sought advice, so that you have been able to make a well-informed choice;
- You believe in the mission and vision of Groasis B.V.;
- You are looking for an alternative for savings, with higher expected returns. And you are prepared to accept the related risk;
- You are prepared to check regularly whether the value of your investment is developing as expected;
- You want your investment to be meaningful for the world.

And for whom not?

- You are hoping to make quick profits and you want to sell your depositary receipts within the short term;
- You are not prepared to accept any form of risk;
- You would like to be advised on investments in order to make your decision and you have not yet received this advice;
- You have not yet thoroughly examined the documents related to this investment;
- You do not want to make online investments or manage your investment online